Food Industry Workshops

SPICE partnering with the Appalachian Center for Economic Networks (ACEnet) in Athens offers a series of food industry workshops for SPICE clients. ACEnet operates a world renowned Food Venture – Commercial Kitchen & Processing Center. The SPICE food industry workshops include:

Home Kitchen Food Production

Do you have a special food item you would like to produce to sell? Learn about important licensing & labeling regulations and instructions covering baking, canning and bottling in your home kitchen.

The SPICE ACEnet Kitchen Incubator Tour

See and learn how ACEnet can help you with your food production business. The kitchen incubator has the space you need to produce, package and label your product safely and efficiently. For more information on the incubator go to www.acenetworks.org/sectors/food/kincubator.
