1. HAYS COUNTY YOUTH SHOW GENERAL RULES

1.1 INVITATIONAL SHOW: This is an invitational show. The HCLE Board of Directors reserves the right to extend or withhold an invitation to any contestant.

1.2 RULES INTERPRETATIONS AND VIOLATIONS: Exhibitors are requested to report any rule violation(s) to the appropriate division superintendent immediately so that appropriate action may be taken. The Hays County Livestock Expo, Inc. (HCLE) reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or arising out of, or in connection with, or incident to, the exposition and to amend or add to these rules. Exhibitors who violate any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and will be subject to such penalty as the HCLE Board of Directors may order.

1.3 SPECIAL RULES: Special Rules are published in any department where necessary. If there is a conflict between the Special Rules and the General Rules, the Special Rules will govern.

1.4 LIABILITY: All exhibits will be under the control and direction of the hosting organization, but in case will the Hays County Livestock Exposition, Inc. (HCLE), their respective agents, directors, officers, managers, employees and volunteers be responsible for any loss, injury or damage which may occur. The exhibitor will be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury, or damage done to, or occasioned by, or arising from, any animal or property exhibited by him/her. Exhibitors shall indemnify and hold HCLE harmless against any and all claims, demands, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees for defense thereof arising out of conduct or management of the show, including, but not limited to, their negligence. In no case will HCLE, its directors, officers, managers, employees, or volunteers be held responsible for any loss, damage, or injury of any character, person, animal, or article while on HCLE grounds at the event or at any other time or place caused by the exhibitor or any animals exhibited with such exhibition, or any of the animals so exhibited. All owners or persons in charge of property or animals shall care for, guard, protect, and preserve same, as HCLE does not undertake to do so, and it shall not be held responsible for any loss, shrink, animals, owners, or exhibitors thereof.

1.5 DISPUTES AND PROTESTS: All protests or other matters must be submitted in writing and accompanied with a deposit of $100, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protest must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal, and must be delivered to the appropriate division superintendent immediately after the occasion for the protest. All protests will be reviewed by an Executive Board of the Hays County Livestock Exposition, Inc. Judges' and classifiers' decisions will be final and may not be protested. Weight backs may not be protested.

1.6 ACADEMIC ELIGIBILITY: Youth exhibitors and contestants who have been suspended under Texas Education Cod 33.081 "No Pass, No Play" are ineligible to participate in any Hays County Livestock Exposition Inc. activity, event or competition. Any animal owned by an ineligible exhibitor is ineligible for competition. All Hays County 4-H and FFA exhibitors are considered to be eligible by the Hays County Livestock Exposition Inc. to participate in the Youth Livestock Show at the time entries are received from the AST/CEA, FFA, FCCLA advisor. Any AST/CEA, FFA, FCCLA advisor who has a member in his/her 4-H or FFA program who becomes ineligible to participate in the Youth Livestock Show according to the Texas Education Code must provide written and signed notification to the Hays County Livestock Exposition, Inc. Board and the appropriate division superintendent prior to check-in.

1.7 GENERAL ELIGIBILITY: Participants must be a member of a Hays County FFA Chapter, FCCLA or 4-H Club and be eligible to be enrolled in a public primary or secondary school in Hays County and in good standing in an FFA Chapter and/or 4-H Club in Hays County at the time of the Show. *Good Standing means that a youth participant must have met the attendance requirement of attending three (3) meetings and/or events of the organizations between the months of August through January. FFA Advisors and CEA's will certify eligibility of all of the chapter/club exhibitors to the Hays County Livestock Exposition, Inc Board. Exhibitors who do not follow this eligibility will not be allowed to participate in the Hays County Youth Livestock Show.

1.8 OTHER COUNTY SHOWS: The participant and/or project may not enter or participant in another county youth show in Texas other than Hays County in the same school year.

1.9 OWNERSHIP/VALIDATION DATES AND FEES: All exhibitors, regardless of species or project, shall abide by the standards established by the current Texas 4-H/FFA Livestock Program Ethics Policy. The ownership and validation dates specifically pertaining to our show are as shown below.

AUCTION

22.0 SALE RULES

- 22.1 This will be a ribbon sale with ownership of the animals and projects retained by the exhibitor except for food items which will be claimed by the buyer.
- 22.2 An exhibitor may sell one unit per division, with a maximum of two units across different divisions, in the auction. The only exception to this is if he or she has a Grand Champion and/or Reserve Champion in more than two divisions. As an example: to sell more than two items, the exhibitor must have more than two Grand or Reserve Champions in different divisions. Grand and Reserve Champions in breeding classes will be eligible to sell.

22.3A “Unit” will be defined as follows:

UNITS
One Steer
One Swine
One Lamb
One Goat
One Meat Rabbit Pen
One Broiler Pen
One Turkey
One Breeding Animal
One Food Item
One Photograph
One Arts & Crafts or Clothing Item
One Horticulture
One Ag Mechanic Project

22.4 Each exhibitor must appear in the auction ring with his or her own animal for the sale unless otherwise authorized by the HCLE Board of Directors.

22.5 All auctioned items will be assessed a 10% commission charge.

22.6 No floor price will be available for those animals not making it into the auction.

22.7 Each exhibitor will be responsible for the removal and return home of their own animals after the show. A $25.00 handling fee will be assessed to exhibitors who do not remove their animals. All animals will be removed one hour after the sale.

22.8 The HCLE Board of Directors will determine the number of projects to be sold and the order of the sale prior to the auction.

22.9 Pictures and buyer’s lists will be sent to the 4-H Club Managers, FFA, and FCCLA Advisors as soon possible after the show.

22.10 A copy of the buyers “Thank-You Letter” must deliver to the 4-H Club Managers, FFA, and FCCLA Advisors before checks are distributed.

22.11 All “add-on’s” must be submitted to the treasurer within one week after the current year’s auction.

22.12 The HCLE Board of Directors will assess 1.5% interest per month to all outstanding invoice balances that are not paid within 90 days after the current year’s auction.

22.13 Any exhibitor going through the auction must send each buyer a “Thank you” letter.
