

Schroeder, Patricia K.

Patricia K. Schroeder, 64, of Sand Point and formerly of Rochester, died Monday, March 28, 2005, in Lapeer County of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Patricia was born March 12, 1941 in Wyandotte to the late Charles and Mary (Dominguez) Yoder. She married Roger H. Schroeder on July 9, 1960 in Allen Park. Pat has vacationed in the Caseville area since her childhood and moved to Sand Point permanently in 2000. She enjoyed spending time with her family, sewing, quilting and skiing. She was a member of a golf league at Hidden Harbor Golf Course and the Quilt Guild in Pigeon. Pat was a proud breast cancer survivor and supported others who still struggled with the disease. Patricia is survived by her husband, Roger; daughter, Cris Platto and her husband, Steven, of Rochester; son, Kurt Schroeder and his wife, Sharon, of Davisburg; and son-in-law, Edward Westrick, of China Township, Michigan; grandchildren, Dillon, Kirsten, Griffin, Leah, Edward, and Michelle; and brothers, Chuck Yoder and his wife, Chris, of Ft. Myers, Florida, and Bob Yoder, of Taylor. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Wendy Westrick, on July 19, 2004. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 2, 2005, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. Burial will be in the Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. on Thursday and noon to 8 p.m. on Friday. Memorials may be made to the Breast Cancer 3-Day. Condolences may be shared online at www.cfcCaseville.com.
