El Santuario de Los Pobladores (The Sanctuary of the Settlers) is a committee of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish established for the purpose of creating a magnificent arts center, an "adobe" sanctuary. The labyrinth is to be constructed out of adobe, the ancient earthen building technique brought to the San Luis Valley by the early settlers to this part of Southern Colorado, and will be built next to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Conejos, the oldest parish in Colorado. Currently we are promoting an adobe campaign to build the wall which will surround the chapel. Anyone wanting to purchase an adobe in memory of a Loved One or someone special, please contact the church office at 719-376-5985. We will gladly accept any donations, and a contribution of $100 or more will entitle you to a memorial plaque inscribed with your information. We can also arrange for payment by installments. The following list of names have purchased and/or pledged their support of this undertaking, & will be updated as the project moves forward.

MASS READING REFLECTION
May 24, 2020

1st Reading Acts 1:1-11
 [Christ's Ascension]

The wording of this tradition on the ascension of our lord is clearly conditioned by the limited understanding of the universe during the writer's lifetime. This wording is not part of divine revelation. There is no absolute up or down. Heaven is not a place somewhere up in outer space. Heaven is a situation outside our concepts of time and space. What the evangelists have tried to do is describe the final appearance of Jesus and/or the fact that the Lord Jesus is "sitting at God's right hand," which is a Hebrew idiom for sharing power with God. (For both this reading and today's Gospel, see the general introduction to Easter Time, p 371.)

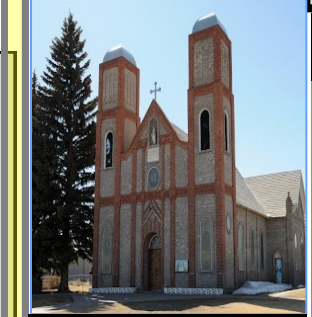

Luke's message for Christ's Followers is: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, ("after he had suffered"), and profess your Resurrection ("he presented himself alive to them"), until you come again ("this Jesus....willreturn"0. That is the way we word it in our first Memorial Acclamation at Mass.

2nd Reading Eph 1:17-23
 [Glorification of Jesus]

Paul, a learned Jewish rabbi, relates the same message as Luke and Matthew do in the first and third reading, only he does it in difficult theological language. Paul relates the risen and ascended Christ to all that exists. Christ is supreme, above all creatures, seated at God's right hand (a Hebraism for "sharing power with God").

Paul prays for the Ephesians and for all of us: "May...God...give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him [the Lord Jesus]."

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE PARISH

The Ascension Of The Lord

THEME: Heaven and Earth

Not all members of our species have the same outlook on life. There are people for whom this life means everything and "heaven" nothing. Naturally good people, they may cherish love as a great value, but they believe that when death comes, that is the end. There are others for whom "heaven" is all-important and this life almost completely unimportant. Save your soul! Many Christians have cherished this outlook, especially concerning others and as long as the self was not involved. Finally, we have those for whom "heaven" is realized already on earth in love!

If we understand Jesus' philosophy of life well, and try to understand the exaltation of his humanity as we celebrate it today, we could give it a try. We may live life, including marital sex and love as an earthly reality. We may develop our potential as earthlings to its fullest. We may make use of the results of science (sociology, etc.) to achieve a better life on this planet. We may consult marriage counselors and psychiatrists and seek the best medical care available. Yet in our best moments ("disclosure situations"), we know that there must be something more than all of this, a transcending reality.

Mass Schedules Resume...
 The faithful remain dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation.

Masses will:

- be scheduled in advance. Parishes will determine the scheduling method
- keep six (6) feet social distance
- wear face mask, except when receiving communion

No more than 10 people may gather (subject to revision) contact parishes directly for scheduling

- This includes the celebrant and assisting ministers
- Available seating areas should be designated
- Seats will be assigned
- Ushers with lists made by the parish will permit entry

Communion
 (Strongly encouraged method)
 The priest, after mass has ended,

- Puts on a face mask
- Sanitizes his hands and waits for the sanitizer to dry. Wiping hands with a towel after applying the sanitizer reduces its effectiveness.
- Grasps the edge of the host
- Touches the opposite edge to the person's hand
- Releases the host

Homebound may request communion.

- Clergy follow the above method
- Communion at the Homebound request is to be given outside, e.g. on a porch or front step, when possible

Other Sacraments
 (Follow these norms for Mass where applicable)

- Individual confessions should continue to be offered at the regularly scheduled times and locations
- Confessions should be temporarily moved out of small spaces
- Confessions are not permitted over electronic media including telephone or video conference
- Penance Services are temporarily suspended until further notice
- At this time, there is NO provision from the Bishop for General Absolution of several penitents at the same time
- The Sacrament of Confession in the Diocese of Pueblo is to continue according to the norms above only through individual confessions, one penitent at a time, vocal confession, penance and absolution.

Stay home if...

- You have a preexisting condition
- Your are feeling sick
- Suspect you may be sick
- You have a sick family member at home
- Remember, the faithful remain dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation.

In the Church there will be no...

- Exchange of peace
- Choir
- Distribution from the chalice
- Missalettes

Collection baskets passed from person to person. Collection baskets should be placed in a visible area of the church. Long-handled baskets may be used if the usher can keep social distance

The Church is to be disinfected after each liturgy (mass, private or communal prayer).

Our Office will be closed on MONDAY May 25, 2020

To observe MEMORIAL DAY

We will be starting to do the Sacrament of 1st Holy Communion. The parents should have already been notified of when their son/daughter will be receiving this sacrament and on what day, starting with one child this Sunday and every Saturday and Sunday for the month of June. If you have any questions feel free to call the office at 719-376-5985 or Gloria Garcia at 719-580-2630.

We have Bible packs and candles in our gift shop if you need any.

Congratulations to our first recipient
