

Bethann Anderson

While going to school for business administration, Bethann started her own company and has had companies in customer relations, medical billing, printing, daycare, and an employment agency. She also studied Psychology and has worked in the Christian Counseling field. Bethann has homeschooled her two sons through high school and both graduated and received scholarships to attend college. She and her husband, Charlie, live in San Antonio with their growing family.

Email: Mrs.Anderson.FridaySchool@gmail.com