

Minister Mary Beeks Williams

Greetings! My name is Minister Mary Beeks Williams, a woman of God who knows the Almighty's healing, sustaining, and blessing power. Originally, I hail from Amory, MS and as a child joined Glenn's Chapel Holiness Church, presently known as Miracle Revival Pentecostal Holiness Church. At the age of nine, I became a believer that God can use you no matter your age when He allowed my brother and me to unite our family at one church. After relocating to Sumter Co., I joined Anderson Temple C.O.G.I.C., Meridian, MS where I served in several capacities: Primary teacher, Adult teacher and Assistant Sunday School Superintendent.

Further, I received my Evangelist License under the late Presiding Bishop, G.E. Patterson and Supt. Murray. I became a member of True Vine Fellowship Church in 2005 and on January 9, 2011, was ordained as a minister by Bishop Willie Davis. Currently, I serve as part of the ministry for Children's church, the Women and Girls Mentoring Ministry, and assist in the financial department.

I graduated from Mississippi Valley State University with a major in Business Education. I furthered my education at the University of West Alabama earning a Master in Education, and Administrative Certification. My work career began with SCO, Inc. Later, I worked for MCC, the Sumter County School System, and as an Adjunct Instructor for UWA. It has and always will be my passion to work with the poor, and God truly gave me positions where I could do just that.

Additionally, I taught my one and only daughter, Zeldra, that she can do the impossible through Christ. I feel that my time in Sumter County has not been by chance but predestined in God's plan for my life.
