

find it in Fayetteville

The Colors of Italy artist reception Saturday

By Olivia Sellers | NWA Media

An example of Catherine Brimberry's work

Catherine Brimberry, an abstract expressionist whose main medium is watercolor, will be having an artist reception on Saturday, August 6 from 4 - 6 p.m. at White Lotus Salon and Massage, which is located at 4750 East Mission Blvd. in Fayetteville.

Celebrating the colors of the Umbrian hills of Italy, the exhibition will be on display all of August. A professional artist for 11 years, Brimberry was inspired to paint this collection after spending two weeks in the Umbrian hills in May of last year. She served as an assistant to famed Arkansas artist Barry Thomas.

Brimberry said her art has been in many regional and national juried shows and has been featured many times in Palette Magazine.

"My art is included in private collections in Tennessee, Texas, Michigan, California, Australia and Italy," she said. "Locally, my art can be found in Fayetteville at Art Emporium on College Ave."

Everyone is welcome to come see her unique work. Food and drinks will be served. More information is available by calling White Lotus at (479) 582-4806