

Merideth, Annalee M.

Annalee M. "Lee" Merideth, 85, of Caseville, passed away Thursday, July 30, 2009 at home. Born in Flint Nov. 28, 1923, she was the daughter of the late Ralph E. and Lucille M. (Miller) Jennings and graduated from Flint Northern High School.

On June 16, 1951, she was united in marriage to George W. Merideth in Flint. After moving from Flint, they lived for more than 25 years in Caseville. George preceded her in death Dec. 9, 2004. Lee was an active member of the Pigeon First United Methodist Church, where she served on many committees, including administrative board, pastor/parish, outreach and nominating. In addition, she taught Vacation Bible School, sang in the choir and was a member of the United Methodist Women. She also served on the Zone 1 and Top-of-the-Thumb Leisure Ministries boards. Lee helped entertain residents at Scheurer Long Term Care, as well as Country Bay Village and Country Gardens. She was also a Scheurer Hospital volunteer in the main lobby. She was a member of the Caseville Arts Council, the Caseville Christmas Fund and the Pigeon Red Hot Flashers. Lee served for years on the Caseville Village Council and the Oakwood Housing board.

Her survivors include a daughter, Gail (James) Muchler of Honor; a son, Darrel Merideth of Flint; two grandsons, Scott Slosser of Hale and Tim (Tina) Slosser of Herron; a great-grandson, Eric Slosser; two step-grandsons, Jim (Sue) Muchler of Mesick and Tracy (Amanda) Muchler of Grass Lake; and several step-great-grandchildren, step-great-great-grandchildren; and a step-great-great-great-granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by a son, Dennis, in 1977.

Funeral service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday, Aug. 3, 2009 at the Pigeon First United Methodist Church, with the Rev. John Britt, pastor, officiating. Cremation will follow, and interment will be in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday and from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday at Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon, and from 10 a.m. until the service at 11 a.m. Monday at the church.

Memorials may be made to the Dennis G. Merideth Cancer Research Fund at Wayne State University or Pigeon First United Methodist Church.
