and said defendant committed fraud in connection with the sales and offers for sale of said securities by:

PARAGRAPH ONE

knowingly and intentionally representing investors would receive a 16.5% return per year on their investment for the entire life expectancy of the insured, said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and

PARAGRAPH TWO

knowingly and intentionally representing funds invested by investors in the RSLIP Program would be used for the purposes of purchasing specific life insurance policies associated with each investor's portfolio and that said investors' funds would be used to pay for the premiums of specific life insurance policies associated with each investor's portfolio, said information being misrepresentations of a relevant facts; and

PARAGRAPH THREE

intentionally failing to disclose funds invested by investors in the RSLIP Program would be comingled and that said funds would be misapplied by using said funds to pay premiums on any life insurance policy purchased by Retirement Value, L.L.C., when said premiums were due, regardless of the investors' portfolios, said information being a material fact; and

intentionally failing to disclose funds invested by investors in the RSLIP Program would be comingled and that said funds would be misapplied by using said funds to purchase any life insurance policy purchased by Retirement Value, L.L.C., regardless of the investors' portfolios, said information being a material fact; and

knowingly and intentionally representing that investor funds used to fund premium reserve accounts would be escrowed for the period of the life expectancy of the insured plus twenty-four (24) months, said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and

PARAGRAPH SIX

knowingly and intentionally representing that any unused premium reserve funds paid by investors and collected in connection with the operation of the RSLIP Program would be returned to investors, said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and

PARAGRAPH SEVEN

knowingly and intentionally representing that the law firm of Kiesling, Porter, Kiesling & Free, P.C. would act as an independent escrow agent in connection with the operation of the RSLIP Program, said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and intentionally failing to disclose there were insufficient funds available in premium reserve accounts to pay premiums on life insurance policies for the life expectancy of the insured plus twenty-four (24) months, said information being a material fact; and knowingly and intentionally representing to investors that Retirement Value, L.L.C., would employ a tracking service to track insureds whereupon the deaths of said insureds appropriate documentation could be filed in order to collect the death benefit on each such insured, said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and intentionally failing to disclose that approximately 30% of investors' funds invested with the RSLIP Program were used to pay fees and commissions to sales agents selling the RSLIP Program, said information being a material fact; and knowingly and intentionally representing to investors they retained an irrevocable co-beneficiary status in the life insurance policies maintained in their portfolio, when in fact the entity actually holding revocable beneficiary status for such policies was actually the law firm of Kiesling, Porter, Kiesling & Free, P.C., said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and knowingly and intentionally continuing to represent to investors that the life expectancies on insureds provided by Midwest Medical Review, LLC, on policies sold to investors in the RSLIP program were approximately 92% accurate even after receiving information that a report conducted by an independent firm auditing the life expectancies prepared by Midwest Medical Review, L.L.C., determined that the life expectancies provided by Midwest Medical Review, L.L.C. used in the RSLIP Program were significantly lower than 92%, said information being a misrepresentation of a relevant fact; and intentionally failing to disclose that on or about September 28, 2006, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Tennessee, Memphis Division, in case number CR. NO. 03-20433-B, styled United States of America vs. George Kindness and Amscot Medical Labs, Inc., George Kindness, the owner of Midwest Medical Review, LLC, was convicted of being aided and abetted in the introduction of a misbranded drug into interstate commerce with intent to mislead, said information being a material fact; and intentionally failing to disclose that on or about August 23, 2007, in the United States District Court, Eastern District of California, Sacramento Division, in Case No. 2:07-cv-01724-GEB-CMK, styled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Secure Investment Services, Inc., American Financial Services, Inc., Lyndon Group, Inc., Donald F. Neuhas, and Kimberly A. Snowden, the Securities and Exchange Commission alleged Secure Investment Services, Inc., for which Richard H. Gray worked as a salesperson, misled investors by providing them unreliable life expectancy estimates certified by a physician from Amscot Medical Labs, Inc. and Midwest Medical Review, LLC, companies controlled by George Kindness, among other things, said information being a material fact; and intentionally failing to disclose that other life expectancy companies had provided life expectancy estimates for the insureds in the RSLIP Program that were longer than those made by Midwest Medical Review, L.L.C., said information being material fact; and intentionally failing to disclose that on or about June 25, 2009, a Notice of Hearing in Docket No. 454-09-4867.C was issued by the Texas Department of Insurance to Richard H. Gray, among others, alleging Richard H. Gray committed fraudulent or dishonest acts or practices in violation of the Texas Insurance Act, and seeking the revocation of Richard H. Gray's license to sell insurance in the state of Texas, said information being a material fact; and intentionally failing to disclose on or about September 8, 2008, Richard H. Gray, individually and in his capacity as Managing Member of Hill Country Funding, L.L.C., signed an "Undertaking Filed with the Securities Commissioner of Texas" with the Texas State Securities Board, agreeing, among other things, to "comply with all provisions of the Texas Securities Act," said information being a material fact;

PARAGRAPH TEN

All of said amounts were obtained pursuant to one scheme and continuing course of conduct, and the aggregate amount that was obtained was $100,000.00 or more;
