

Alley Reconstruction, Plano, TX

Prime consultant selected by the city of Plano for professional services involving the design for the reconstruction of 1 residential alley and 1 commercial alley located in the city of Plano. Approximate size of the project was 1,800 sy of 6 inch thick concrete pavement for the residential alley and 2,000 sy of 8 inch thick concrete pavement for the commercial alley. Project included right-of-way verification by MVE and the removal and replacement of existing guardrails, curb and gutters, and ADA ramps.

Before

After