

History has demonstrated that the most notable winners usually encountered heartbreaking obstacles before they triumphed. They won because they refused to become discouraged by their defeats.

The Bible says, 'Where there is no vision, the people perish.' Have you a vision? And are you undeviatingly pressing and pushing toward its accomplishment? Dreaming alone will not get you there. Mix your dreams with determination and action.

Speech by the Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING
At the "March on Washington"

I am happy to join with you today in what will go down in history as the greatest demonstration for freedom in the history of our nation.

Five score years ago a great American in whose symbolic shadow we stand today signed the Emancipation Proclamation. This momentous declaration of light of hope to millions of Negroes was seared in the flames of withering injustice. It came as a joyous daybreak to end the long night of oppression. But 100 years later the Negro still is not free. One hundred years later the life of the Negro is still crippled by the manacles of segregation and discrimination. One hundred years later the Negro lives on a lonely island of poverty in the midst of a vast ocean of material prosperity. One hundred years later the Negro is still languished in the corners of American society and finds himself in exile from his own country. We've come here today to dramatize

In a sense we've come to our nation's capital to cash a check. When the architects of our Constitution and the fathers of our magnificent Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to which every American was to fall heir. This note guaranteed that all men—yes, black men as well as white men—would enjoy the rights of liberty and justice under law. But today America has defaulted on this promissory note insofar as her citizens of color are concerned. Instead of

Jesus is the “Sent” - Apostle

“Who are you,” they [the Jews] asked. “Just as I have been claiming all along, I have much to say in judgment of you. But one who sent me is reliable, and what I have heard from him I tell the world. ...

The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what pleases him. ...

“You are not yet fifty years old,” the Jews said to him, “and you have seen Abraham!”

“I tell you the truth,” Jesus answered, “before Abraham was born, I AM!” At this they picked up stones to stone him, ...

Hebrews 3:1

... Moses was faithful in all
God's house.

Jesus ... greater honor than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honor than the house itself. For every house is built by some one,
but God is the builder of everything.

Moses ... as a servant in all
God's house, testifying what would be said in the future.

But Christ is faithful as a son
over God's house.

And we are his house, if we hold on to our courage and the hope of which we boast.

But Christ, as the Son, is in charge of God's entire house. And we are God's

Encourage One Another "Daily"!

*With whom was He angry for forty years?
... So we see that they were not able to enter,
because of their unbelief.*

Hebrews 3:17-19

<sup>12</sup> See to it, brothers and sisters, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.<sup>13</sup> But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called, "Today," so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness.

<sup>23</sup> By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

<sup>24</sup> By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter.

<sup>25</sup> He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time.

<sup>26</sup> He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. <sup>27</sup> By faith

he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger;

he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup> By faith

he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.

ADAM

- Authority over all creation
- Tempted and failed
- Caused all mankind to be infected with sin
- Disobedience to God leads to death
- Gave authority to Satan

JESUS

- Authority over all creation
- Tempted and passed (Hebrews 4:15)
- Gave all mankind the opportunity to be forgiven of sin (Romans 5:12, 15)
- Obedience to God leads to life (John 10:10)
- Took authority back from Satan

COUNTERPOINTS
BIBLE & THEOLOGY

The Law and the Gospel are two keys. The Law is the key that shutteth up all men under condemnation, and the Gospel is the key which opens the door and lets them out.
