Family Lore

He came to America with his parents at the age of four. They lived for a few years on a farm near Meyers Lake, Stark, OH. It being a low, marshy land, they came to the hills of Winesburg about 1838 and settled on the old Michael Immel farm.

Though his schooling was rather limited, by careful reading he educated himself and was well informed in both European and American history.

At the age of 19, he went to Chillicothe, OH and was employed in the mercantile establishment of Thomas Woodrow, an uncle of Woodrow Wilson. In 1872, with his family, he returned to Winesburg and with his brother-in-law Charles Joss, took over the thriving mercantile business of his father-in-law Col. Nicholas F. Joss. This firm of Joss & Frederick lasted until 1885 when the former withdrew. Augustus, assisted with his oldest son Charles, continued the business until his retirement in 1901, when he and his wife moved to Canton, OH.

During the Civil War, he was an officer in the "Home Guards" and was called into active service at the time of Morgan's Raid through Ohio. A physical disability prevented him from taking a more active part in the war.

On 03 Mar 1864, in Winesburg, Holmes, OH, he married Emilie Pauline Joss, daughter of Nicholas Frederick Joss (1813-1886) (SEE Joss #48) and Maria Louisa Friederika Cranz (1818-1894) (SEE Cranz #14).
