Journey Through Advent In preparation for the third weekend of Advent, the newest video of the series Journey through Advent is now available on the CCCB's website. This week, the Most Reverend Douglas Crosby, O.M.I., Bishop of Hamilton proposes ways to rejoice and give thanks in all circumstances.

A Wonderful Life in Christ (via Zoom) Everyone is invited to join us for a series of four discussions as we reflect on the themes of the 1946 film "It's a Wonderful Life," and relate it to our Christian story. Sessions are open to anyone, will take place on Zoom the four weeks of Advent: December 4th, 11th, 18th and 21st at 10:00 AM. Contact Karen for more information at 387-4198 or register through the website for St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, www.setmoncton.com.

Directory for Catechesis

In October 2020, the Office for Evangelization and Catechesis (OEC) of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops hosted a four-part webinar series on the recently released Directory for Catechesis. The webinar recordings and the supporting PowerPoint Presentations are now available on the CCCB website: Click here to access the Directory for Catechesis Webinar Series Resource Kit. In the coming months, the OEC will continue to provide webinars and/or podcasts to focus on themes from the Directory for Catechesis. Examples of key themes for exploration include accompaniment, "Kerygmatic catechesis", catechesis in a digital age and missionary discipleship. Additionally, the OEC will examine the recently released Encyclical Letter Fratelli Tutti and its relationship to the themes of the Directory for Catechesis. Information will be publicized on these initiatives as it becomes available. The Directory for Catechesis is available for purchase in both English and French at <https://www.cccb.ca/cccb-publications/>. For more information, please contact Marg Shea-Lawrence, Director, Office for Evangelization and Catechesis, at m.shea-lawrence@ccc.ca.

Exploring our Faith

Sent to Bring Good News

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour."

This year, I hear these words in a new way. They are not just words that set the stage for Jesus' earthly mission. They are not simply a prelude to the gospel; they are a promise and a gift of comfort and joy, as we come to the end of a year that has been marked by strife and suffering. In some ways all of us have experienced captivity this past year. We have not been able to go where we wanted to go. We have not been able to spend time with those we wanted to spend time with. Some have been separated from family. Others have suffered financial strain. Many have been overwhelmed by worry and a growing sense of doom. And it is into this pain that God is sending good news. This will not last. We will experience the Lord's favour.

But we are not just passive recipients who await this favour; we are also active agents of this favour. Our response to suffering makes the Lord's favour a reality for ourselves and for others. We, who have been anointed by the Holy Spirit through baptism and confirmation, are asked to be the voice of compassion and comfort. We are asked to give voice to the Word that creates reality.

Even though we have listened to these words year after year, many of us have failed to see just how powerful our voice can be in the face of suffering. In recent years, however, modern neuroscience has begun to recognize that the voice of compassion is a primary source of healing. We now know that there are three basic things that are needed to activate the part of our brain that soothes us. The first is supportive touch. The second is warmth, both physical and emotional. And the third is the voice that "coos" comfort. – No matter what our age, if we are suffering, we need these same three things that a crying baby needs.

That can be a difficult concept in a world in which we pride ourselves on strength and endurance, a world in which comparing someone to a baby is a horrible insult. Perhaps that is why our lectionary calls us to be the voice of comfort only two weeks before we welcome the coming of God as a baby. If the almighty, all-powerful God can come as an infant who needs to be comforted, surely there can be no shame when we need to be comforted. If Mary and Joseph could offer comfort to the Son of God without embarrassment or resistance, surely we can do the same for other human beings.

This week may each of us practice being the voice of comfort. Place a gentle hand over your heart, feel the supportive touch and the warmth. Speak in the gentle tones you would use to soothe an infant. "I know this hurts. I know this is incredibly hard. We are going to get through it. Everything is going to be okay." Notice what happens.

OUR LADY OF MERCY

The CWO of Our Lady of Mercy Christmas Memorial Flower Campaign is now underway. Funds donated will be used to decorate Our Lady of Mercy Church for the Christmas season. These are a beautiful Memorial for a deceased family member, close friend or for a Special Intention. Specially marked Envelopes are in the Pews and at the back of the Church. Memorial Donation Envelopes will be received up to and including regular collection on Saturday, December 19th. Thank you

The St. Vincent de Paul Society again offer our "Tags for Toys" toy drive to help support the Salvation Army in their quest to offer toys to the less fortunate of our community. Due to Covid restrictions, this will be done a little differently. There will no longer be a tree with tags, but rather a table operated by a volunteer. Tags will be passed to the Parishioner with the gender and age that is requested. This must be done quickly as you exit the Church. Note: picking up a Tag is not absolutely necessary; you can just purchase the gift of your choice. (The tags are simply an effort to get a cross section of ages and both genders). Tags will be available for pick up through to December 12th. Bring your gift "unwrapped" and deposit it in the Boxes provided in the entrance of the church. The deadline to drop your gift is the weekend of December 19th.

Our church must be disinfected following every liturgy; there must be a person checking people in and having them answer the Covid-19 questions; there also needs to be someone just inside the door supplying all in attendance with hand sanitizer; and finally, there must be volunteers inside the church escorting people to their seats in a manner that respects social distancing. If you would like to help with any of these new ministries, please contact the parish office at 857-4223.
