5) Welcoming Guests & Sick Call: (Freeman)

- Four veterans attending for the first time were invited to stand and introduce themselves and share their Branch of Service.
- Paul (need last name) was reported to be back on sick call.
- The following guests and financial awards were recognized:
 - Betty Pratt, Jean Sessa, Barb Blackburn, Judy Freeman, and Lesley Bennet (aka Post 543 Chili Chicks) were recognized for winning the Civitan's annual chili cookoff. In the spirit of supporting others, the winning team opted to not accept the $1,000 first prize, directing that it be retained by the Civitans to support their philanthropic efforts for exceptional children in Brunswick County.
 - Doug Pratt, Jr., President of the Brunswick County Civitan Organization thanked the Post ladies and reported proceeds would be used to support the over 100 exceptional children in Brunswick County classrooms by providing iPads to assist their learning. Civitans have provided over 140 iPads to exceptional children in the last 10 years.
 - Chuck Blackburn thanked the Post on behalf of Kelley Whitehurst, a nursing student with a 4.0 GPA, who was the recipient of the 2019 Colin Furr State of North Carolina Memorial $1000 Scholarship.
 - Doug Koontz, Computers for Kids Coordinator, gave a brief presentation on the work his organization does to collect and refurbish used computers that are then donated to local schoolchildren. The Post presented Computers with Kids with a check for $400 to support their efforts.
 - Charles Jackson, Director of Operations and Outreach for the Brunswick County Family Assistance Office was presented with a $300 check to support their Angel Tree program. The program provides assistance at Christmas to local active duty service members, veterans, and their families.

6) Membership Report: (Sessa)

- To date 91% of the membership has renewed their membership goal for 2019-2020; 186 renewals of 204.

7) Finance Report: (Pratt)

- The monthly finance report showed the Post has received 72% of the budget projections up to this point. Budgeted expenditures totaled 24% and are on track for the year.
- The Finance Report was approved without alteration.

8) Service Officer Report: (Muir)

- Steve reported the next regional VEAC will take place April 16-18, 2020 at South Brunswick High School. The National Commander will be invited. The NC Veterans Affairs office will provide four vans to transport veterans to the VEAC and the NC DMV has been requested to be on site to issue REAL ID compliant drivers licenses.

9) Guest Speaker: Terry Snyder, Founder & Director, Operation North State

- Operation North State (ONS) is a 501c3 (non-profit), all volunteer, organization which currently offers eighteen "unique" military support services programs for North Carolina's deployed troops and veterans-in-need.

- In 2019, ONS will feature its 10th Annual “NCCARES” Christmas Box Project - utilizing North Carolina's People, Places, Products and Pride to send 1,500 NCCARES Christmas Boxes to North Carolina deployed troops.
- ONS also conducts 8 “Top Shelf Fishin' Festivals” throughout the state for Wounded Warriors and Disabled Vets from North Carolina and neighboring South Carolina and Virginia.
- The Post presented ONS with a check for $1,000 to support their programs.

10) Recent and Coming Events and Commander's Report

- The Commander reviewed the many activities the Post had sponsored and participated in and thanked all for their tremendous support and teamwork.
- Operation North State Christmas Boxes is ongoing. Post is looking for names of individuals eligible to receive boxes.
- “Charlie Brown” Holiday Tree – your military memorabilia is needed!
- Thanksgiving: 110 active duty members and their families will be hosted by St. James residents for dinner on thanksgiving day.
- Army-Navy Football game watch party on December 14, 2019 at 2:30 pm at Bella Cucina Restaurant in Southport.
