Collection and Use of Personal Information. The Applicant Program in the California Department of Justice collects the information requested on this form as authorized by California Penal Code section 11105(c)(9). The Applicant Program uses this information to furnish state summary criminal history information to any individual who is the subject of the record requested if needed. This is in conjunction with an application to enter the United States or any foreign nation. In addition, any personal information collected by state agencies is subject to the limitations in the Information Practices Act and state policy. The California Department of Justice's general privacy policy is available at: <http://oag.ca.gov/privacy-policy>.

Providing Personal Information. All the personal information requested in the form must be provided. This form may not be processed for failure to provide all personal information requested.

Access to Your Information. You may review the records maintained by the Applicant Program in the California Department of Justice that contain your personal information, as permitted by the Information Practices Act. See below for contact information.

Possible Disclosure of Personal Information. In order to conduct criminal offender record information background checks for visa/immigration, we may need to share the information you give us with criminal justice and law enforcement agencies.

The information you provide may also be disclosed in the following circumstances:

- In response to a Public Records Act request, as allowed by the Information Practices Act;
- To another government agency as required by state or federal law;
- In response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.

Contact Information. For questions about this notice or access to your records, you may contact the Applicant Program by phone at (916) 227-6970, by email at visa-immigration@doj.ca.gov, or via mail at:
