

We Were Young

Across

- 1 Rotary founded this Utica club for newsboys, whose headquarters was often in former schoolhouses.
- 4 Its first troop was formed at the Utica YMCA in 1909, and first camp held in Summit Park.
- 5 Organization formed in 1872 for “infirm and destitute” children, still existing today.
- 7 This “alphabet agency” helped create a park system in Utica in the late thirties, consisting of tennis courts, wading and swimming pools, baseball diamonds, playgrounds and ski runs. Abbr.
- 9 This century-old educational institution, founded in 1821, saw its demise with the improvement of the Utica and New Hartford public schools.
- 10 This organization founded in Utica in 1903, had the mission of cooperation between families and schools.
- 12 The first Utica day nursery for working mothers with children was opened by this organization in 1919.

Down

- 1 In the late 1920’s, Dr. T. Wood Clarke headed this health organization, formed for prenatal and preschool medical care and was an important influence in improving the infant death rate.
- 2 At one time, Tibbitts Rd., Snowden Hill Rd. and Middle Settlement Rd. all had these sites for teaching rural children.
- 3 Begun in 1894 on Cottage Pl. Utica and later run by Sisters of Charity, this became one of the model baby homes in the country.
- 6 Founded in 1830, this haven for children later was located on Genesee St. from 1860-1924, on land donated by BF Jewett.
- 8 In 1858, this organization began in Westminster Church with prayer meetings, a reading room and library, later expanded to a separate building with gymnasium and swimming pool.
- 9 This school began holding athletic field days in 1891, showcasing local high school athletes, which led to an Interscholastic Athletic Association in central NY. Abbr.
- 11 The National Youth Administration trained adolescents for work in munition and airplane factories during this war.