

Benefits of using a NFA Gun Trust.

- Allows you to name more than one person as being allowed to have possession of the NFA items owned by your trust. (your spouse, adult children) This allows you to protect yourself and your family from Constructive Possession, which is a violation of the NFA.
- Allows you to sell the entire trust with the NFA items to another person without another transfer tax.
- Allows you to name who you want to have control of your NFA items in the event of your death by them taking control of the trust and the trust's owned property.
- You can add or remove approved users of the NFA items at a later time. (Family members or friends)
- There are other benefit that can be found online if you research NFA Gun Trust.

Changes effective July 13th 2016

Every member of the trust must submit fingerprint cards and photo with every NFA trust purchase.

Copies of Form #4 and other ATF federal paperwork must be sent to your local CLEO.

I am not a lawyer and provide this information for you to do what you want with. I can try to answer any further questions you may have.