

Comments from our Teacher Evaluation Forms

“Students were engaged and learning! Really well done! – Teacher, Imperial

“They continued to talk about the puppets all day. This was a fantastic review to our bullying unit – Thank You!! – Teacher, St. Peter

“This was my first Kids on the Block presentation. I will definitely do it again.” – Teacher, Ethel Milliken

“Greatly appreciate the level in which this topic was presented...” – Vice Principal, Dr. Hanna

“It was very informational in a safe and comfortable way.” – Teacher, St. Michael

- “The show engages this age group with puppets and audience participation! Excellent presentation!”

-“It was an enjoyable, interactive way to present a potentially “heavy” health and safety outcome to Grade One.”

- “The students love this presentation! They are engaged and the puppets are so wonderful. The information is relevant and presented in a way that is interesting and holds the students’ attention. It was also suitable for a multi-ability classroom and students with intensive needs and supports were also able to participate and learn. Love, love, love this program!”

- “Kids love it and can relate...such an important topic especially in this area!”

- “It was really great for the kids and dads to be together so safety messages can be reinforced. Facilitators were patient, respectful and knowledgeable. Thanks so much!”

- “The kids really enjoyed the presentation and felt ‘it was a great way to teach students about this’ as put by them. They enjoyed the seriousness mixed with humor.”

- “Awesome! Engaging and fun!”

Just as we teach children about fire safety and school lockdowns, we need to educate children about personal safety to prepare them, not to scare them.

Statistically, a child is much more likely to experience some form of abuse than a school fire or lockdown.
