Judges in the Classroom Students in the Courtroom

Schools are invited to participate in the Louisiana Supreme Court's recent initiative to join with the LCLCE, BESE and other entities to expand the Judges in the Classroom/Students in the Courtroom programs. Judges across the state have volunteered to visit classrooms in your area.

- A learning program designed to support and reinforce students' classroom lessons
- Topic of presentation can be coordinated with teacher's lesson plans
- Year long program - request a visit anytime this school year
- One class, several classes or whole school presentation requests are welcome

Schools - To request an in-school or in-courtroom presentation, return this fillable form.

Judges/Lawyers - To volunteer, return this fillable form.

It's easy. Let the LCLCE know you are interested, and we will take care of the rest.

Sponsored by the Lawyers/Judges in the Classroom Program, a Partnership of the Louisiana Supreme Court, Louisiana State Bar Association, the Louisiana District Judges Association, Louisiana Bar Foundation and the Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education (LCLCE).

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education (LCLCE) is a non-profit 501(c)(3). It is the public education partner of the Louisiana State Bar Association. The LCLCE promotes the practical understanding of, and respect for, the law throughout Louisiana. This is achieved by coordinating and implementing law and civic education programs. It is financially assisted, in part, by the Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts program through the Louisiana Bar Foundation and by contributions made through the LSBA dues check-off option.
