

Susan Lindenmuth

Susan Lindenmuth has been in the fire and emergency medical services business since 2004. She currently holds the position of Director of Public Affairs for Estero Fire Rescue in Estero, Florida. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Professional Administration and a Master's Degree in Emergency Services Management. She is a Certified District Manager and is a graduate of the Emergency Management Institute and is recognized as a FEMA Master Public Information Officer.

She is a Florida certified firefighter/EMT and is a volunteer firefighter for Bayshore Fire Rescue in Southwest, Florida and is a Fire Service Instructor III in the State of Florida. Susan is a past member of Florida Task Force Six, Urban Search and Rescue Team as a Technical Search Specialist and Canine Search Specialist. She is a member of the PIO State-wide Deployment Team for the State of Florida Emergency Management, Operations Division for FFCA and a member of Florida All Hazards Incident Management Team.

In 2016, the Florida Fire Chiefs Association presented her with the award for Public Information Officer of the year. She is a member of the National Information Officers Association, Florida Fire Chiefs Association, Florida Association of Special Districts. Susan also plays with the fire and police pipe and drum bands across the country and is a member of the FDIC Pipe and Drum Massed Band.