Shelter's 'long-timers' paid in full - ready for homes

Randolph County Animal Shelter in Wedowee had a donor come in and pay the rest of the adoption fee for the eight "long-timers," which means NO COST to approved adopters. These eight precious 8 babies have been at RCAS far too long. They have all been spayed/neutered. They are all just waiting for a loving and able-bodied person to make them family. Of course, RCAS has to have an approved application to be able to adopt. So, if you are looking to extend your family with a furry friend, come check them out. Bernie, Evan, Rusty, Trooper, Mackie, Shy, Gunther and Bailey are ready for their freedom ride out of here. Stop by the shelter Tuesday - Saturday 9 a.m.- 3 p.m. CDT to meet these great doggies.

RCAS book sale Saturday

Randolph County Animal Shelter's fall book sale will be Saturday, Oct. 12, and Saturday, Oct. 19, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Chris Mitchum's cotton warehouse on Main Street in Roanoke.

RCAS will again feature a military and history display, as they have received many new and interesting books.

Please do not donate any encyclopedias, magazines or textbooks, as they do not sell.

They will also have an annual raffle, which is the biggest fundraiser of the year. They will have three great prizes that hopefully all their friends in the county will want to purchase many tickets.

First prize is two tickets to the MoneyLion 300 NASCAR Xfinity Series Race on April 25 and two tickets to the Geico 500 Monster Energy NASCAR Cup Series Race April 26.

Second prize is $300 cash.

Third prize is a handmade bear claw patterned lap quilt donated by Ellen Lavin.

Tickets may be purchased at the animal shelter in Wedowee, at the book sale, from board members or by calling Evelyn Smith at (256) 282-8171.

Tickets are $1 each or six for $5. You need not be present to win.
