Like the Rings of a Tree

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

F or some, going to confession can bring a sense of relief—as if the slate has now been wiped clean; as if we have gotten a do-over with life or the past has been left behind as though it never happened. Our past, however, is always with us—the good and the bad, the joys and the sadness, the grace and the sin. There are no do-overs. We carry with us the marks of our lives simply because every experience, every kindness and cruelty, every moment of generosity and selfishness, all have made us into who are. We are much like a tree that adds a ring to its trunk each year. The ring always bears the marks of that year, whether it has been a year of rain or drought, whether insects have attacked, or whether Mother Nature has been kind. The tree always remembers and carries with it forever the rings of what life has been.

Our lives are the same. The story of the Pharisee and the tax collector tells this tale. Like the Pharisee, we have much good in our lives. We too have prayed and have been generous. We have been kind and honest and cared for the poor. We have tried to be faithful. The Pharisee's downfall was that he forgot about his sinfulness; he forgot he needed God's mercy. The tax collector, on the other hand, remembered his failings. Both were in need of God's love. Only the tax collector seemed to realize it. ●

[Jesus said,] "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

LUKE 18:14

How has my life been a mixture of sin and grace?

contributes to a balanced diet.

How to donate?

Take your deer to Tim Scheulen

Loose Creek, MO. He is the designated processor for CCCNMO's Food Pantry.

Virtue of the Month: Friendship
*Friendship: reflects the love and unity God desires for all His children. It goes beyond simply enjoying someone's company — true friendship is rooted in kindness, trust, respect, and a shared desire to grow in faith and goodness.
In the Catholic tradition, friendship is seen as a gift from God and a way to live out the commandment to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31). It helps us support one another, make good choices, and reflect God's love through our actions.

Catholic Stewardship Renewal

In last week’s Gospel, we heard the parable of the persistent widow—a powerful example of our Catholic Stewardship Renewal theme from Romans 5:5: “Hope does not disappoint.” The widow’s perseverance reflects the kind of hope-filled faith Jesus calls us to—a deep trust that God listens, cares, and responds. Unlike the reluctant judge, God answers with a Father’s love. This parable reminds us to pray with persistence and hope, knowing that our hope is never in vain—because God never disappoints.

Through God's grace, we are each given unique gifts, and we are called to share them in love of God and neighbor. By prayerfully discerning how we use these gifts, we can become more intentional in serving our parish and community.

Each year at Easter, we renew our baptismal promises—rejecting sin and affirming our faith—as a sign of our renewed life in Christ. Similarly, the annual Catholic Stewardship Renewal is a chance to reaffirm our commitment to our parish and its mission. It is a concrete way to show that we belong to our parish family and support its ministries.

To help with this discernment, please reflect on the questions in the “Discerning Your Talents” document as you consider your Stewardship Renewal commitment.
