The Fifth Annual MixMatch Dance Festival will be presented by the Hart Pulse Dance Company Friday through Sunday, Sept. 9 through 11, and Sept. 16 through 18 at the Miles Memorial Playhouse, 1130 Lincoln Blvd., Santa Monica.

Held at the Electric Lodge in Venice for the last four years, the festival has shifted venues to Santa Monica to accommodate a larger audience. Event organizers note that MixMatch has grown in popularity, selling out at every recent performance.

Along with the increased space, the festival has also added an additional weekend of performances for a total of two weekends with six different shows.

Each year has also brought in a steady increase of artist submissions, allowing for performances to be spread out for a different show each night, event organizers said.

Dance styles will include contemporary, modern, ballet/pointe, jazz, hip-hop, belly, world, pole and dance on film from choreographers throughout Southern California, San Francisco, San Diego, Santa Cruz, Santa Barbara, Nevada, Oregon and New York.

Performances are scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. Fridays, Sept. 9 and 16; 7:30 p.m. Saturdays, Sept. 10 and 17; and 2 p.m. Sundays, Sept. 11 and 18.
