

Amy Springer Hartsell

Executive Advisor to the President
Eastern Mennonite University

Amy Springer Hartsell is the Executive Advisor to the President at Eastern Mennonite University. Reporting to the President, Ms. Hartsell provides guidance and support for executive-level functions, priorities and initiatives; communicates with internal and external constituencies on behalf of the President; and serves as the board professional to the Eastern Mennonite University Board of Trustees.

Ms. Hartsell previously served as the Assistant Dean and Coordinator of Student Success where she worked in the areas of student engagement and retention, academic advising, and first-year learning. She has also held the position of Associate Director of Admissions at EMU where she was responsible for student recruitment and coordinating the on-campus visitation program.

Ms. Hartsell earned a B.A. in liberal arts from Eastern Mennonite University and a M.Ed. in counseling psychology from James Madison University. She is a member of the National Association for Presidential Assistants in Higher Education.