

What a Card

The house was full
The deck was stacked
The Queen of Hearts was flushed
The deal was Diamond Jack's
And the shuffle became a hush

The cards were dealt
The ante was met
The Deuce decided to pass
The Queen of Hearts was showing a pair
You can bet on that

I see you and I'll raise you too
Said the Joker with a laugh
As the spent Ace of Spades
Took a chance

It was take it or leave it
With the winner taking it all
But, oh, what a card
He was

Jack couldn't call
The DUEce was a fold
As the bids were getting bolder
The shark in the hounds tooth suit
Peeked over his shoulder

The stakes were high
Up to a thigh
When the Joker, as always, bluffed
And, with nothing up his sleeve, but an arm
An inside straight was enough

I see you and I'll raise you too
Said the Joker with a laugh
As the spent Ace of Spades
Took a chance

It was take it or leave it
With the winner taking it all
But, oh, what a card
He was
