Biography

Mary Marguerite Nichol, 88 years old of Fillion, passed away peacefully at her home with her husband Bob by her side, on January 16, 2024. Mary was born on January 14, 1936 to the late Edward and Helen (LePla) Haller, at her childhood home in Bad Axe, Michigan. On June 30, 1956, she and her high school sweetheart, Robert Nichol were married, and their love story spanned a lifetime of over 67 years. Mary and Bob were rarely apart, as even during his years of driving truck, she was by his side. She was a life member of Huronia Chapter 81, Order of the Eastern Star, and she served as Worthy Matron, and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Kinde. She loved to read and often carried an "extra" book in case she finished one. She always enjoyed hearing about her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and watching them grow and bringing joy to those that loved them.
