A note from the Mayor's desk

Sandra Azzi
Mayor

The Village Mayor and Board of Trustees would like to recognize Tim and Rhonda Carey of Carey's grocery for over 47 years of service to the Cohocton community. Their contributions to various organizations in and around the Village is commendable. We want to thank them for keeping their business open all these years especially in this challenging year of 2020 with the pandemic caused by Covid 19. This village will not be the same with the closing of our hometown store. We congratulate them on their retirement and send our best wishes for their future. On behalf of all of us, and the residents of Cohocton, we say thank you.

The Village is working on a procuring a Community Development Block Grant to address our water issues.

The Village Board would also like to thank the C.D.C. for the use of their building, to help us safely hold the Village Board meetings.
