What topic would you like addressed by a member of the legal community to your students?

Examples:

- I am going to review the three branches of government with my 5th grade the week of April. I would like a member of the legal community to address my class that week.
- I would like a Law Day presentation for my second graders on or around May 1.
- I would like a lawyer or judge to participate in my school's Career Day activities.
- I have no specific topic in mind but would appreciate the opportunity to have someone from the legal community visit my middle school classroom the first week of October.

TOPIC: (a list of topic ideas available upon request) _____

1) Please identify a two week time span that would work best for you to receive a presentation.

2) What class periods would work best for you? What time are these classes? Please give at least two options.

You will be contacted by email or phone providing you with information on your class presentation.
