

At the History Center

Across

- 1 A collection of historical handouts made of paper; usually advertising something or someone, usually tri-folded
- 3 The room where collections are shown at the Oneida County History Center
- 4 A type of unpublished book; handwritten; contains photos and memorabilia; plural
- 6 Items mainly consisting of words, numbered pages, and occasional images; usually bound and covered with dust jackets
- 7 A common type of research researchers enjoy involving their ancestors
- 10 A collection featuring a mix of letters, postcards, memorabilia, diaries, personal papers, etc.
- 11 The type of building Oneida County's history is stored in
- 13 A type of collection; The opposite of a photographic or "positive" print of an image; plural

Down

- 1 A type of collection; Used for communication; Often postmarked with stamps, Usually includes photos of historical locations or local landmarks
- 2 A collection of visual materials with wide ranging subject matter; made of several material mediums; usually on canvas
- 5 Another visual collection; just one of these is worth a thousand words
- 8 Collections on display are called _____.
- 9 Where merchandise is usually sold in historical societies and museums
- 11 4 of these mark the Oneida County History Center's main front entrance
- 12 A paper collection featuring lots of lines, shapes, and colors; usually has a key or legend