

Shirley A. GreenLeaf, 78, of Port Huron, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday morning, Oct. 28, 2012, at Marwood Manor-Bridgeport Unit in Port Huron.

She was born in Pigeon on Sept. 8, 1934. Early in life, she chose to move to Florida with her three children to enjoy the warm weather. After many years of service she retired from Merck. She lived bravely for years with a disorder called spasmodic torticollis, later in life, Alzheimer's, and is now at peace with the Lord.

She is survived by her three very proud children, Tammy (John) Beebe of Port Huron, Pamela GreenLeaf-Hagen (Dan) of Dexter and Gregory GreenLeaf (Steffani) of Colorado Springs, Colo.; she was proud of her five grandchildren, Sarah, Nicholas, Hunter, Jenny and Kelly; two great-grandsons, Julian and Brogan. She is also survived by her brothers and sisters, Ron Geiger (Shirley), Ken Geiger (Dorothy-preceded in death), Ross Geiger (Nancy), Keith Geiger (Janet), Paul Geiger (Carol); Pauline Eichler (John-preceded in death), Janette Hoepner (Pete-preceded in death), Beverly McCarty (Richard).

A celebration of life service will be conducted at noon on Saturday, Nov. 10, 2012, at the Salem Methodist Church in Pigeon.

The children invite all who knew Shirley and her family.

In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Shirley can be made to the National Spasmodic Torticollis Association (torticollis.org) or Marwood Manor-Bridgeport Unit in Port Huron, or the Alzheimer's Foundation of America.
