

Janik, Dorothy

Dorothy P. Janik, 72, of Colfax Township passed away Sunday, Jan. 6, 2002, at Hills & Dales General Hospital in Cass City following a long illness. Mrs. Janik was born on July 14, 1929, in Jackson, Miss., to the late Clavis and Clista (Wilshire) Nunnery. Dorothy and Frank J. Janik were united in marriage on Aug. 10, 1957, in Bad Axe. Mrs. Janik was a member of First United Methodist Church in Bad Axe. She was employed at the former Red Top Restaurant, Pat's Coney Island and the Coral Gables Restaurant as a cook and baker. She also was employed for a time at Spindex and General Cable before retiring in 1978. Dorothy enjoyed visiting with her family and friends, her grandchildren, baking, cooking, reading, gardening and fishing. Surviving are her husband, Frank J. Janik; three daughters, Nadine Langley and her special friend, Ron Klee, of Harbor Beach, Paula Edwards of Caseville, Ava Edwards of Texas; two sons, Marvin Janik and his wife, Marcia, of San Diego, Calif. and John Purvis and his wife, Kathleen of Biloxi, Miss.; 16 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Edna Hamilton of Wesson, Miss., and Margaret White of Jackson, Miss. Mrs. Janik was preceded in death by two daughters, Dolly Sanders and Tina Janik; one grandson, Mark Purvis; one sister, Bobbie Miller; three brothers, Aubrey, Alton and Willie Nunnery. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Jan. 10, 2002, at First United Methodist Church in Bad Axe. The Rev. William Wright will officiate. Burial will take place in Colfax Township Cemetery. Visitation is from 7 to 9 p.m. today and from 1 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe and from 10 a.m. until the time of the service Thursday at the church. Memorials may be given to First United Methodist Church or the donor's choice.