

MacGillivray, Alice J.

Alice J. MacGillivray, age 88 of Bad Axe (formerly of Medallion Village in Sebewaing), passed away Friday, April 13, 2007 at the Huron Medical Care Facility.

She was born in Richmond, Indiana on April 14, 1918, daughter of the late George and Sylvia (Smith) Graham. On June 6, 1936 she was united in marriage to John M. "Jack" MacGillivray in Detroit. He preceded her in death on October 2, 2002. Mr. and Mrs. MacGillivray were married for over 66 years. Mrs. MacGillivray graduated from Southeastern High School in Detroit and a Detroit Business School. During the World War II war effort she worked at Hudson Motor Car Company airplane factory in plant security and as a secretary. She later worked for J. L. Hudson Company in downtown Detroit and Eastland as a salesclerk, and as a secretary for the East Detroit Public Schools administration. She was also a real estate agent for many years.

The MacGillivrays lived in Lake Havasu, Arizona for 10 years and then Las Vegas, Nevada for 10 years. After living in the southwest United States, they returned to Roseville, Michigan where they lived until moving to Medallion Village, Sebewaing in 1998.

She is survived by a daughter, Sandy (Bill) MacGillivray of Sand Point; a son, Norman J. MacGillivray of Sterling Heights; two grandsons, Brett MacGillivray of Fraser and Todd MacGillivray of Chicago, Illinois; a great-granddaughter, Miranda MacGillivray of Warren; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by four brothers and five sisters.

A Memorial Service will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, April 19 at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with Elder Karen Bouverette officiating. Interment will be in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Memorials for Mrs. MacGillivray may be made to the Rheumatoid Arthritis Foundation of Michigan or to Heartland Hospice, Bad Axe.
