

SYDNEY SMITH

Instructor • Company Choreographer & Coach

Sydney has a huge passion of teaching others and seeing them grow! She is all about support and helping others build up to their goal.

Her training started at the age of 11, she's had training at Santa Susana High school and in studios in Simi Valley and North Hollywood, she has also certified in the certificate program at IDA (International Dance Academy) Hollywood. She started professionally dancing at the age of 16 working with many artists (Mandi Rose, Yohna Piatt, Jessica Sutta, Katrina Stuart, and more!) and choreographers (G. Madison, Henrique Quos & Valentino Valdimirov, Dmac Sandoz, Liezel Marie, and more!) She's worked on music videos, live tours, tv, and more! Sydney is part of a non profit organization called DanceEngagements that offers opportunities that are no longer easily at reach due to unfortunate budget cuts in programs not deemed "important" by some. She also works as an assistant HipHop coach at Calabasas High School!

Sydney has been trained in hip hop, jazz, tap, ballet, point, lyrical, contemporary, jazz funk, Bollywood, and acro. She started teaching at the age of 19 and fell in love, she loves to create pictures, dynamics and a story through movement. Sydney gets inspired from her students, she loves seeing the process of growth in their dancing. One of her main goals is to help her students at ASPIRE reach their goals!
