

A close-up photograph of the corner of a white trailer. The trailer has a silver metal frame with rivets. On the left side, there is a logo consisting of a stylized 'H' with an arrow pointing to the right, and the word 'ERS' below it. In the center, there is a black, semi-circular speaker. To the right of the speaker is a large, black, rounded rectangular window with a black frame. At the top of the trailer, there are two small, square, black lights.
