

The Generous Gift

Rachael Martin 10,20,2017

Hello there!

Just thought I would end the week by sharing a thought that's been running around in my head for a while now – but I never thought to share it because I feel like it's a topic that has been taught enough that it's a given. Forgive me Lord for not seeing Your promptings in sharing this sooner, and for having a "It's already been shared over and over so why bother?" attitude.

Wisdom.

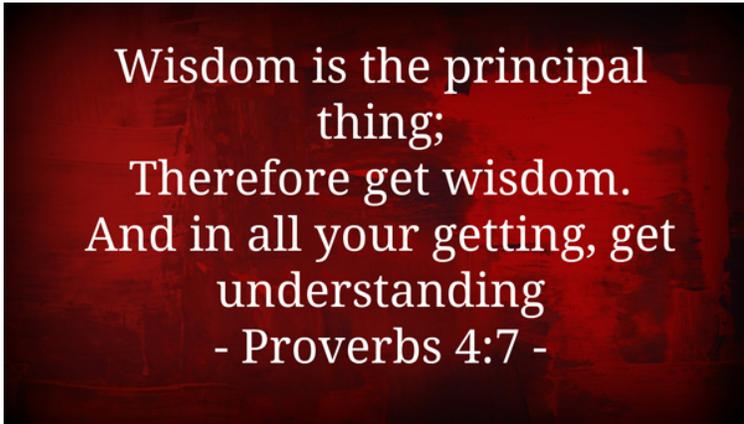

It's not often that I'm able to see my husband on the job. I've seen him maybe a total of 4 times in 2 years when he's been on a jobsite. Today was one of those 4 times and when I pulled up, and saw him and his co-worker, when I saw his co-worker handling the agenda for them, I immediately thought when I pulled away – Lord – You give wisdom and place people in positions for Your plans to unfold. So right then and there I prayed that the Lord would give Gary wisdom beyond his years and place him in the right places at the right times.

Over the years, I've prayed for wisdom for Gary, my family, my friends, and my leaders and I know I need to pray more so I'm sharing this with you all to remind us all because the Bible says – God gives it generously... but we have to ask. The Bible also says that even in the womb, He gave us wisdom. So we probably are holding onto more than we even know....

James 1:5 – If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

Psalm 51:6 – Yet you desired faithfulness even in the womb; you taught me wisdom in that secret place.

Even those of us who don't feel adequate enough, God will give it to us... He doesn't lie.

Wisdom is the principal thing;
Therefore get wisdom.
And in all your getting, get understanding
- Proverbs 4:7 -

In scrolling through scriptures on wisdom, I ran into a scripture that stuck out as well – and I wanted to remind each of us – to not look to man for the final answer, and that when things don't make sense, or people that we should be looking up to don't appear to be making proper choices, let's remember that God can give them wisdom too....

2 Chronicles 1:10 - Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead this people, for who is able to govern this great people of yours?"

Job 12:13 - "To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his.

Sometimes He's waiting for it to be big enough to weigh down our heart to jump start a prayer that's biblical – moving heaven and changing earth.... For as long as we are here. Amen?
Have a great-wisdom-filled weekend!
