

Everything, Anytime

I would do anything for you.
Anything, anytime, anywhere
I don't mind – for you.
I would do anything for you.
Even if you asked me to swim the ocean blue,
I would do that for you.

You are everything to me.
Everything, all the time, everywhere
You're on my mind – you see.
You are everything to me.
Even if the mountains crumbled to the sea.
You are everything to me.

The time it goes so quickly,
You hardly feel it pass.
Here today and gone tomorrow,
But the memories they last.
And, you will always have me.

I would do anything for you.
Anything, anytime, anywhere
I don't mind – for you.
I would do anything for you.
Even if you asked me to swim the ocean blue,
I would do that for you.
And, even if the mountains crumbled to the sea.
You are everything to me.
