

Walking in His Goodness

I specifically sense God wants to touch you with His goodness today. However, many times we get in the way of His goodness. You have to be honest and recognize the fact that there are times when you question the goodness of God. Walking in His goodness is a choice. We either do, or don't. We all know there are things in life that are trying to stop us from seeing the goodness of our Creator.

Today is a call to walk in the truth of His Goodness. Stop right now, ask God to forgive you and embrace what He has for you today.

This is truth- God is good. Everything about Him is good. Think about this. You cannot have goodness without God, just as you cannot have God without goodness. God's goodness is beyond measurement and it's extends towards you! Would a good God hold something back from you? His goodness is directed personally to you. He is boundless, inexhaustible, immeasurable and unlimited in goodness. I love to tell people, "Good has a name, and it's God."

His goodness is not determined by what you do or don't do so stop acting like it. God's goodness isn't based on something in us that deserves His goodness. He is good because of something in Him. His goodness last forever because He has no beginning, no end, and in Him there are no limits. God is infinite in all He does (Romans 11:3). He is the embodiment of perfect goodness. There is none as kind, benevolent, or full of good toward all creation. That includes YOU!

God is all-knowing. His knowledge encompasses every possible thing that exists, has ever existed, or will ever exist. Nothing is a mystery to Him because He is omniscient. His understanding is infinite. He is your peace. You do not have to walk in turmoil. For He is Jehovah Shalom, the Lord, your peace.

He has redeemed you from the enemy. He has gathered the winds in His fist and He will establish you as He keeps you from the evil one. God is everywhere. He is in and around everything, always close to everyone. God is omnipresent. God is greater than creation for it was by His hands that everything we see came into being. He is higher than the nations or any idol fashioned by the finest craftsman.

All things are God's to give, and all that is given to us is given by Him (Acts 17:24-28). He holds all power in His hands. He will do exactly what He said He would. He will provide whatever is needed, because that is Who He is. His goodness is personal.

Heavenly Father,

There is none like You, O LORD; You are great, and great is Your name in might. You have overcome the world! You are greater than all of my fears or failures. Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty. Indeed everything that is in the heavens and the earth is Yours. For Yours is the dominion, O LORD, and You are head over all. For You Oh LORD will not abandon me on account of Your great name. May I truly walk in faith what I confess with my mouth, that You are good to me. Help me continue to grow in faith when faced with the difficulties of life. I know Your plans for me are good because You are good. My soul cries out "Great are You Lord! How awesome are Your deeds!" You satisfy my desires with good things. May Your name be great and proclaimed loudly in and through my life!
