

Shelter kittens need homes for the holidays

Randolph County Animal Shelter is having a Holiday Gift Special. Now through the end of the year you can adopt a cat or kitten for only $32 (reduced from $87), according to Chuck Smith, president of the RCAS Board.

This includes all immunizations and spaying or neutering of your new pet. Please come by, see our pets on www.petfinder.com, visit our website at www.randolphshelter.org, or call for more information (256-357-0101), he said.
