Biography

Nancy Ann (Orr) Elliott, 72, of Ubly, passed away peacefully on May 29, 2021 at her home under hospice care. Nancy was born in Dearborn, Michigan on October 29, 1948 to the late Gilbert and Mary (Green) Orr. She received her undergrad degree from Michigan State University and continued her education, earning a Masters at Central Michigan University. She was an active member of the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church and was involved with the church choir. Nancy was a board member for Ubly Community Schools and McLaren Thumb Region Hospital. She was also a member of both the Michigan Council of Teachers of English and the National Council of Teachers of English and received multiple awards for her teaching excellence. Nancy taught over 5,500 students at Ubly High School in her 41 years of teaching, and also taught at Delta College and Saginaw Valley State University. Nancy always challenged her students to "never be less than their best". She was an avid reader, quilter and taught many quilting classes.
