Approved:

Sec. 6-61. - Nuisance, dangerous, or vicious dogs.

(a) Classification. The Columbia County Sheriff's Office or any other law enforcement officer may bring cases to classify dogs within the county as a nuisance, dangerous, or vicious to the village public protection committee. the sheriff's office is responsible for presenting substantial evidence to the village public protection committee for the requested classification of a specific dog to the village public protection committee. the sheriff's office may consult with an outside agency when gathering evidence. the owner(s) of the dog and the victim(s) shall be informed of the village public protection committee meeting date and time and shall be provided with the opportunity to participate in the meeting.

A majority vote is required by the village public protection committee to approve or deny the requested classification. The village board has superseding authority over the village public protection committee with respect to the decisions to classify a specific dog as dangerous or vicious. The village board may overturn the village public safety committee decision by a majority vote.

(b) Nuisance dogs. the owner of any dog that has been classified as a nuisance shall keep said dog securely enclosed on the owner's premises and shall keep it muzzled when exercising it. where there is evidence such animal intimidates persons from the use of some or all of their public property, the sheriff or his deputies may order the animal muzzled, leashed, or restrained.

Any person violating this section shall be subject to the penalty listed in section 6-2.

(c) Dangerous dogs. a dog that has been classified as dangerous may, but is not required, to be euthanized after the first incident. any dog that has previously been classified as dangerous and has a second incident in which it would subsequently be classified as dangerous shall be euthanized.

Any person violating this section shall be subject to the penalty listed in section 6-2.

(d) Vicious dogs. any dog that has been classified as vicious shall be euthanized.

Any person violating this section shall be subject to the penalty listed in section 6-2.

(Ord. No. 2022-21, § 2, 10-4-2022)

Editor's note— Ord. No. 2022-21, § 2, adopted Oct. 4, 2022, repealed the former § 6-61 and enacted a new § 6-61 as set out herein. The former § 6-61 pertained to vicious dogs and derived from Code 1986, § 7-1-6(b) (1).
