Biography

Lois Ann (Peterson) Greenzweig, 76, of Bad Axe, passed away Tuesday, August 31, 2021. She was born February 25, 1945 in Ferndale to Raymond and Eunice (Crooker) Kitt. Eventually the family settled in rural Marlette, where she attended Eagle Country School, and subsequently Marlette Community Schools, graduating in 1963. She lived in Bad Axe for many years and was well-known as the spunky and funny waitress at Pat's Restaurant, The Steakhouse and the RoundTable. Later she was a CNA at both Huron and Sanilac County Medical Facilities, from which the latter she retired. Lois spent her retirement years back in the Marlette area closer to her sisters whom she loved so very much. She also spoke fondly of her niece and nephews Shari, Mike, Randy and Raymond. She was proud of her British and Canadian heritage, which was reflected in her love of tea and an antique teapot collection. Lois looked forward to the annual Midland Antiques Festival with the group of her sisters, nieces and daughters, She also found joy in quilting , knitting, weekly BINGO, bowling and watching cable news channels. She spent her lifetime loving and spoiling cats. Always an avid reader, it was common for her to have a book in her hand, the TV on and her cat, Emma, on her lap.
