

TAKE A CHANCE

By John Lipinski

This is your time of life, baby, step up and have a little fun
You don't have to think, maybe, I did it before, I remember what's wrong
This is your time, so realize, that you might even be the one
Cuz, I'm not like those other guys, and you're still alive and the past is dead & gone

Pretty baby, take a chance, I gave you my heart, so just take it
We should start a romance, sky's the limit, if we make it
So hit the floor, it's time to dance, and you're on my mind, I can't fake it
I said, baby, baby, take a chance, I gave you my heart, so don't break it

Take a chance, baby, take a chance, c'mon for real romance
Take a chance, baby, take a chance, c'mon, c'mon, give me a chance
Take a chance, baby, take a chance, c'mon baby, let's dance
Take a chance, take a chance, for real romance

So, have the time of your life, baby, the here and now has just begun
Don't think twice or ask maybe, here we go again, is it another smokin' gun
This is the time to fantasize, cuz, two hearts together beat as one
I'm not like those other guys, so trust me now, baby, I'm here for the long run

Pretty baby, take a chance, you did this before, your heart was breakin'
In a coma, in a trance, waiting for someone to awaken
I'll kiss you now and take a stance, and promise you'll never be forsaken
I said, baby, baby, take a chance, my heart belongs to you, a promise I'm makin'

Take a chance, baby, take a chance, c'mon for real romance
Take a chance, baby, take a chance, c'mon, c'mon, give me a chance
Take a chance, baby, take a chance, c'mon baby, let's dance
Take a chance, take a chance, for real romance
