

The Northport Gazette

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 2015

PROGRESS ON THE 'LITTLE CLOSET' FOOD PANTRY

Volunteers were busy sawing some of the lumber on site that was cut by Johnny Williamson's sons Larry and Ricky Williamson, as progress began on the "Little Closet" Food Pantry in Samantha.

Left – Ricky cooked breakfast for the volunteers this past Saturday.

Dakotah Smith is Johnny's great-granddaughter. She is helping build the stage that she will performing on with New Hope Drama Team.

Volunteers gathered and worked this past Saturday.

Progress on the "Little Closet" Food Pantry in Samantha

By Becky Williamson
Special to The Gazette

We have started construction on the "Little Closet" Food Pantry in Samantha.

The name Little Closet is in memory of our grandmother, Pearl Williamson. She called her pantry "the little closet" and who ever came for a visit would always get something she had canned to take home with them. The door to her little closet was always kept opened.

Outdoor Amphitheater is Located on Fondren Road behind The Good Shepherd Statue on Highway 43 North, Samantha, Alabama between mile markers 216 and 217.

Bring a Lawn Chair

2ND Annual Legacy of Love Festival

FREE Event

Additional parking at Northside Baptist Church.

Shepherd Hill Opry, Samantha, AL
Saturday, April 18, 2015
1:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

COUNTRY

GOSPEL

Allen Frizzell

BLUEGRASS

LOCAL PERFORMERS

Crossed Over, Carl & Pat Lowery, Charlotte West, Travelaires, The Oswalts, Rebecca House, Adam Crawford, Beverly McAllister, Gidnet Maxwell & Dix Stanley, The Renfree Sisters, The Kirkland Family and more.

Train Rides

Bouncy Houses

Food

Homemade Ice Cream

Face Painting

Shepherd Hill Opry is located on Fondren Road behind The Good Shepherd Statue on Highway 43 North, Samantha, Alabama between mile markers 216 and 217. Call (205) 293-3744 for more information: www.goshpherd.org or www.samsongoodsshepherdfoundation.com
All donations benefit Johnny Williamson's Good Shepherd Foundation and the Little Closet Food Pantry. A 501(c)(3) organization. EIN: 48-1243770