

ALTON W. SCHULTZ

Alton W. Schultz, 76, Railroad Street, Elkton, died Tuesday at Huron Memorial Hospital, near Bad Axe, after a short illness.

He was born July 20, 1901, in Souletown and had lived in the Elkton vicinity all of his life.

Mr. Schultz and Viola Ginter were married Feb. 27, 1926, in Elkton. She preceded him in death on June 11, 1967.

He was retired from Elkton Concrete Products, which he managed for 15 years.

Mr. Schultz was a member of the Elkton Missionary Church and the Elkton Senior Citizens.

Surviving are one son, Leroy Schultz, Augusta, Mich., and one daughter, Mrs. Donald (Bertie Lou) Secord, Utica; nine grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Norma Wettlaufer, Bad Axe, and Mrs. Francis (Leta) Wilson, Elkton. One brother and one sister preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton. Rev. Harold Young, pastor of the Elkton Missionary Church, will officiate, with burial in Riverside Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Wednesday.