Applicant Probation/FINS Letter

_____ is applying to be accepted into the Arkansas National Guard Youth Challenge Program. Youth Challenge is a quasi-military structured behavioral modification program located at Camp J.T. Robinson in North Little Rock, Arkansas. The residential phase of the Program is 5, ½ months and enrolls in January and July with an anticipated graduation in June or December. As the Juvenile Probation/FINS Officer for the above named applicant, I certify the following by initialing:

- ___ The applicant is on Juvenile Probation or FINS under my supervision.
- ___ All current charges have been adjudicated or deferred upon completion of the program.
- ___ The applicant has not been adjudicated with a felony.
- ___ The applicants court involvement will be suspended during the residential phase of the program, to include (monthly reporting and court dates).
- ___ I am aware the Youth Challenge Program is not a court-ordered program and a court order will not have any bearing on the applicant being accepted into the program.
- ___ I may be contacted by the program for the following reasons (the applicant is having difficulties and needs help in redirection, the applicant is attempting to leave, or the applicant has been dismissed from the program).
