

V.C.M.E.C. Model Horse REVIEW

Vol. 5 No. 2 ~ Summer 2020

Eighteen months in the making, the aggregate results of the seven-country, six-leg VCMEC 2018-19 Online World Championships are in! Among its cavalcade of champion vintage customs is Paint stallion Mars Flash, a Breyer Adios CM by Carol Williams in 1990, who emerged on top in the 1990s division.

A Word to the Fore: So Much News, So Little Space...!

June is here and there's a slew of news, so let's leap right in!

First and foremost, coming atcha this issue is a cavalcade of newly crowned VCMEC World Champions!

Competing against other vintage customs from around the world (Australia, Canada, Germany, Japan, Sweden, the United Kingdom, and the USA), they've earned these honors through a year and a half of competition under six different judges in the 2018-19 VCMEC Online World Championships show series. It's an event so epic, we had to split this issue into two halves to be able to upload all the results!

(We had originally planned to present live video reveals of the World Champion and Reserve in each class, but ultimately only did that for the 1960s/'70s division. Our webcam just couldn't capture the images displayed on the computer monitor, sigh. So instead, we busted butt to get this Summer issue out as quick as possible. This issue is actually coming out less than two months after the Spring issue!)

The beautiful trophies, rosettes, flat ribbons, and medals (another awesome job by Hodges Badge Company!) are packed for mailing, and I'll start contacting entrants to verify mailing addresses once this issue is done and posted.

The first two editions have been so much fun, we're happy to announce that the 2020-21 VCMEC Online World Championships are a go! The gate will open June 15, with the first show in the six-leg series to start September 1 (deadline is August 30). Get your show information packet PDF on our website, <http://www.vcmec.org>, or on the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center's Facebook page.

You'll find the biggest news of all in the box below: Vintage CM Census 2020! It's going to be a monster job, but with your help, we know it'll be well worthwhile.

The value of print in making model horses extra-memorable was demonstrated in spades last month when some of the late Lisa Anne Donnelly Knapp's stars that were prominent in hobby publications in the 1980s and '90s resurfaced for sale. Coverage is on the next page!

Normally, next issue would feature the results of VCMEC Live III. With that event postponed, we've been percolating on how to fill the pages--and have hit on an exciting idea! Stay tuned for an extra-special issue next time!

Now, here come the world's greatest vintage customs and their hard-earned VCMEC titles for 2018-19. Congratulations to all and their creators, owners, and photographers!

Til next, please be safe!

-Sparky C.

Announcing Vintage CM Census 2020, culminating in a full-color reference book!

They've had decades to find their way around the world. Of the thousands of vintage custom model equines created over the years, which ones are still with us or are likely to still be out there?

Do you own one? Used to own one? Created one? If so, we need your help in Vintage CM Census 2020!

Running from June 6 to September 30, Vintage CM Census 2020 will gather photos and information on vintage custom equines created in the year 2000 or earlier. The result will be published in a full-color reference book in December.

Our Vintage CM Census 2020 site on SmugMug has nearly 250 folders by artist, for contributions of photos and info on vintage custom equines that you either own, used to own, or created, and believe still exist. (We've started with artists who created entries in VCMEC shows, but know there are more. If we need to add an artist folder, just let us know!)

Please help us get as many vintage customs as possible documented to preserve them in print for future reference!

Favorites of the late Lisa Anne Donnelly Knapp resurface

We're saddened to report that one of the model horse showing hobby's most avid competitors of the 1980s and '90s, artist Lisa Anne Donnelly Knapp, passed away on March 3, 2018, after battling lung cancer. She was 63.

Her passing came to the attention of the vintage custom community last month when Peter Tocco, who recently bought Lisa's collection from her husband, asked about the value of some of her well-remembered stars in the Facebook group Vintage Model-Horse-Custs. He then put them on eBay, and hobbyists grabbed the chance to look after Lisa's favorites.

Venus, a 1985 Bev Zimmer creation and two-time Model Horse Gazette cover model who was one of the most iconic model showhorses of the 1980s, sold to an unknown buyer for $888.

Dow Jones, one of Lynne Baum's most famous works, sold to hobbyist Jane Varin of the U.K. for $483. Created in 1986, he became a grail for Jane the moment she saw him in a 1989 ad for Lisa's Shamrock Stables in The Hobby Horse News.

This 1987 creation by Lynne Baum (now von Mayr), a Breyer Legionario III graced with an exquisitely sculpted mane and tail, joined the collection of vintage maven Sue Stahl with her winning bid of $130.50.

Your editor associates Lisa with her superstar Kathleen Timmerman mule molly KT Pretty In Pink (that's them together at Midwest Classic 1994 in the photo at top right), so was extra-happy to bring home this 1991 Timmerman mule baby from Lisa's collection for $108.50.

Signed KW under one hoof, this customized Breyer Classic Man o' War is possibly the work of Keren Woods (now Gilfoyle-McGroarty). Heather White won him with a bid of $101.92.

This Hartland 9-inch Tennessee Walking Horse with a flashy custom paint job and mohair mane and tail was unfortunately not signed by his artist, but found a loving home with Holly Carson, the high bidder at $23.50.

After the auctions, Peter Tocco took offers on a few of Lisa's more damaged horses. Sunrise Serenade, created by D'arry Jone Frank and featured in her THHN ads in 1990, was a $175 purchase by Sparky C.

A Black Horse Ranch Mr. Conclusion resin repainted by an unknown artist who might have been Lisa, this burly fellow with a broken ear and broken leg sold to Holly Carson for $100. Thanks to all their new caretakers!

18 months in the making! Here they are: the aggregate results of the Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress 2018-2019 Online World Championships!
