Dear Parents:

It is time to come and see everything Scouting has to offer your child's present and future. For over 100 years, Scouting has provided fun activities that lead to personal responsibility and high self-esteem. A Cub Scout Pack learns basic skills, encourages teamwork, and helps the members achieve a deeper appreciation for service to others in the community and the importance of family.

Today, Cub Scouting teaches boys and girls:

- ◆ CONFIDENCE, through recognition by adults
- ◆ MORAL AND ETHICAL DECISION-MAKING, by instilling essential values
- ◆ BELONGING, by building relationships with other youth
- ◆ SKILLS, through hands-on learning
- ◆ THE VALUE OF FAMILY, by fostering quality family time to strengthen the bond between parent and child
- ◆ CITIZENSHIP, by teaching him or her how to be a responsible community member
- ◆ SOCIAL SKILLS, through interacting with other people
