Some thoughts;

I may be slow on the pickup (I know I am at times, my kids remind me) when we speak of peoples home or origin we talk about Californians, Oregonians, New Yorkers etc. When we call ourselves Christians aren't we saying Christ is our home or origin.

I was reading my daily devotional recently and the message was a reminder of where we are as Christians. As Christians we are living between the already and the not yet. Our faith reminds us Christ has already saved us through his death on the cross. But we have not yet completed the purpose of His death until we join Him in our heavenly home.

THE DISAPPEARED

Wyoming game warden Joe Pickett has two lethal cases to contend with in this electrifying novel from #1 New York Times-bestselling author C.J. Box.

Wyoming's new governor isn't sure what to make of Joe Pickett, but he has a job for him that is extremely delicate. A prominent female British executive never came home from the high-end guest ranch she was visiting, and the British Embassy is pressing hard. Pickett knows that happens sometimes--these ranches are stocked with handsome young cowboys, and "ranch romances" aren't uncommon. But no sign of her months after she vanished? That suggests something else.

At the same time, his friend Nate Romanowski has asked Joe to intervene with the Feds on behalf of falconers who can no longer hunt with eagles even though their permits are in order. Who is blocking the falconers and why? The more Joe investigates both cases, the more someone wants him to go away. Is it because of the missing woman or because he's become Nate's advocate? Or are they somehow connected? The answers, when they come, will be even worse than he'd imagined.

We will meet the second Monday of the month, most months, at a restaurant or someone's home.
