

THE WORLD CELEBRATES RABINDRANATH TAGORE'S

150th BIRTH ANNIVERSARY (1861-1941)

~ Nobel-laureate Poet and Writer ~ Philosopher ~ Composer ~ Artist ~ Educator ~ Social Reformer ~
~ Dramatist ~ Humanist ~ Environmentalist ~ Champion of Women's Rights ~ Internationalist ~

For the inauguration of the year-long celebrations, Metro-Vancouver Coordination Committee proudly presents the brilliant & world-famous Bharata Natyam dancer & choreographer:

Mythili Prakash

With solo dances and live music, performing a Bharata Natyam rendition of Tagore's famous Dance Drama

CHANDALIKA

Based on an ancient Buddhist fable, Chandalika centers on Prakriti, a lowly untouchable social-outcast. Into her dreary and dehumanized life walks in Ananda, a disciple of the Buddha, who accepts water from her and tells her that all humans are created equal. Ananda's compassion and rejection of the repugnant practice of untouchability turns out to be a life-altering experience for Prakriti.

7:30pm Friday, April 8th
Michael J. Fox Theatre
7373 Macpherson Ave, Burnaby

Tickets: $15, $30, $50 and $100.

Available at:

Main Video: 604-322-5551

Kamal's Video Palace: 604-592-9777

Steve Dhillon: 604-762-5364

Supriya Bhattacharya: 604-937-3965

Find us on Facebook

Search for:

"Vancouver Celebrates Tagore's 150th"

Media Sponsors:

