

Merideth, George W.

George W. Merideth, 80, of Caseville, passed away Thursday, December 9, 2004, at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe. He was born in Monette, Arkansas on August 8, 1924, son of the late William B. and Virginia (Goff) Merideth. He served in the Navy during World War II, and was in Normandy on D-Day. On June 16, 1951, he was united in marriage to Annalee M. "Lee" Jennings in Flint. She survives him. Mr. Merideth retired from the Consumers Power Company in 1982 after 35 years and moved from Flint to Caseville in 1983. He then worked at Beadle Bay Marina on Sand Point. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Pigeon, and a former member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Flint. In addition to Lee Merideth, his wife of more than 53 years, he is survived by a daughter, Gail Muchler and her husband, James, of Honor; a son, Darrel Merideth, of Flint; four grandchildren, Scott Slosser, of Hale, Tim Slosser and his wife, Tina, of Herron, Jim Muchler and his wife, Sue, of Mesick, and Tracy Muchler and his wife, Amanda, of Gregory; one great-grandson, Eric M. Slosser; step-great-granddaughter, Allison Bishop; one niece, Bonnie Rogers and her husband, John, of Georgia; two nephews, Jack Harris and his wife, Faith, and Donald Harris and his wife, Kathy, both of South Carolina. He was preceded in death by a son, Dennis G. Merideth, in 1977; four brothers, Charles, Earl, Leo, and Bobby; and two sisters, Pauline Harris and Laverne Van Allsburg. The funeral service will be conducted at 1 p.m. on Saturday, December 11, 2004, at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with the Rev. Margaret Passenger officiating. Burial will be in the Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. today and from noon until the time of the service at 1 p.m. on Saturday at the funeral home. Memorials for Mr. Merideth may be made to the Dennis G. Merideth Cancer Research Fund at Wayne State University.
